

The Waynesburg Republican.

NOTICE TO ATTORNEYS.—Attorneys will be held responsible for paper books, advertising and job work, ordered by them and not paid for in advance. Such bills to be collectable on demand.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—The attention of our readers is specially directed to the following advertisements, which appear for the first time in our paper to-day.

Our New Chart.—H. H. Lloyd & Co., Executives' Notice.—John Lewis, Jacob Greenlee.

STRAWBERRIES are done for the season. "Tim" runs a coach, tri-weekly, to and from Pittsburgh.

BATHING in the creek is one of the comforts of the times.

YOUNG persons desiring to study German or Latin, will find good instruction at the Normal School.

ALMOST twenty columns of new reading matter in the REPUBLICAN each week. Price fifty cents in advance from now until after the election. Send in the money and names.

TO-MORROW—or to-day rather—will be a big day in Waynesburg. Numerous lodges will be in attendance at the Mason walk accompanied by three or four bands of music. There will be a large crowd and a good time if the weather is favorable.

THE WEATHER.—Until Saturday last the weather had been dry for a spell. On Sunday night a fine shower of rain fell, refreshing vegetation, cooling the air and laying the dust. It was most opportune. Corn and grain of all kinds are looking well.

INDICENT.—The window of the iron clad part of the Prothonotary's office is appropriated to another use than that intended. From the looks a little chloride of lime would prove beneficial. The whole building is degenerating rapidly into a Democratic cess-pool.

A FREAK.—Monday one of those strange occurrences which happen in our natural lives. Our citizens—some of them—were not thrown into excitement but throwing themselves into their air coats, went into the street and cleaned it up much better than we have seen it for many a day. Nobody killed, but several mortally laid.

MORIBUND.—The people of New York are at present in a high state of excitement concerning a colony being formed. In Caribbea to move there to Tennessee. It is said to be offered by heroic spirits, anxious to move to this new land of promise by a knight errant as coveted as that of Don Quixote. Anything about it in Greene county?

SCUM.—The low-boat "Lark," in the employ of the Old Line, sunk her flat loaded with freight near Fredericktown, Saturday night about 12 o'clock. The 15 will be quite heavy on some body as it went down in twenty feet of water. Several parties here had goods lost or damaged. Railroad? railroad! rail-r-o-a-d!!!

FAIR AT WAYNESBURG.—Among the many schemes at present on foot among our citizens that of an agricultural fair to be held in this place is worthy of note. About one thousand dollars have been subscribed, and we understand the ground can be procured and fitted up in time for exhibition the coming fall. When the arrangements are complete and a water run up hill instead of down our readers shall be duly posted.

FAYETTE COUNTY.—The Standard mentions the mysterious disappearance of Hannah Crago, of Davidson's Ferry. It is supposed she drowned herself in the Monongahela River on Saturday, May 20th. A woman answering her description was seen near the river that day with a bundle in her arms, and as she had not been seen since the probability is that she jumped into the river. She had not been in her mind right for some time.

GRANT AND COLLEGE.—We have received from H. H. Lloyd & Co., 21 John Street, New York, the well-known Map Publishers a Colored Pictorial and Statistical Chart containing very good likenesses of our Candidates, Sketches of their lives, the Platform, Letter of Acceptance, Portraits of all the Presidents, and very interesting statistics relating to former Presidential elections. This Chart is designed for the masses, and sell so cheaply that all can have it. See advertisement in another column.

PROPOSAL TO CELEBRATE.—"Vigilant" Lodge I. O. of G. T., are making preparations to observe the anniversary of the Fourth by a grand Temperance picnic, in which all the Sabbath Schools, and the citizens generally have been invited to participate. It is intended to make the affair interesting by speeches appropriate to the day and occasion, by toasts, etc. It will be largely attended.

Since the above is in type we have received a card inviting "all the friends of Temperance and moral reform to participate," with the addition to the programme of vocal and instrumental music and refreshments, signed by A. G. CROSS, B. F. SHANNON, Com. A. C. SMALLEY, Secy.

GRATEFUL SUGGESTIONS.—Where there a large family we would most respectfully suggest the propriety of not sending over one half of them to the Post office for a letter at the same time, especially as all know that the room in which mail matter is distributed, here is a very small one. Another hint: When you do receive a letter or a paper, pass out of the distributing room as quick as possible and do not show your want of appreciating the convenience of others by halting right in the door, opening your letter, and standing there, blocking the way all the while—until you have read it through, and digested its contents. Nonob! unmanly people do this, but it is done nevertheless quite frequently in the Post office in Waynesburg Pa.

Naanwood; or Village Life in New England; by Henry Ward Beecher.

This story originally written for the Ledger, has been published in book form, by the well known firm of Charles Scribner & Co., 654 Broadway, New York. The book contains nearly six hundred pages, in cloth binding, and will be sent post paid for $1.00 to any address. Its merits are unquestioned, as Mr. Beecher never puts in print anything but good characters and sentiment are evenly drawn and a never failing source of interest. Mr. Beecher draws largely from Nature and his wonderful power of description added to a keen insight and love for natural objects, makes the work very instructive as well as amusing. It should be in every family circle where there is taste for fact and fancy intertwined for good.

MOORE'S LIFE OF HON. SCHUYLER COLFAX.—T. B. Paterson & Bro., No. 308 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, have in Press and will publish in a few days, "The Life of Hon. Schuyler Colfax," written by Rev. A. Y. Moore, of South Bend, Indiana, who was for twelve years a pastor and friend, in the entire confidence of Mr. Colfax, and had access to the files of the paper published by Mr. Colfax for twelve years, and to the Congressional Globe; knows all his past history and all who know him from boyhood. He began his biography two or three years ago, so that it is not one of the hurried and ephemeral publications so common in election years. Mr. Moore is a gentleman of the talent and culture, and there is no doubt but that his biography of Mr. Colfax will be worthy of its distinguished subject.

The following letter from Mr. Colfax, to Rev. A. Y. Moore will explain itself: WASHINGTON, D. C., May 29, 1887.

"My dear Mr. Moore.—As your prediction of a year ago has been realized, I have no objection to your publishing any sketch more or less full of my life, you may have prepared. As you were for a dozen years a fellow townsman of mine, and a valued friend, I suppose you know as much about my history as the public would care about knowing; and although my engaging duties here leave me no time to revise the manuscript, I have no fear that your work will not be a faithful one."

Yours, very truly, SCHUYLER COLFAX. REV. A. Y. MOORE, South Bend, Indiana. It will be published in a large duodecimo volume of five hundred pages, printed from large type, and on the finest and best white paper, with a portrait, on steel, of Mr. Colfax executed by one of the first artists in the country, from photographs taken from Mr. Colfax within the last week; the whole bound in cloth in the most substantial manner. Price $1.50 a copy. Copyists wanted everywhere. Large discounts given. Copies will be sent to any one at once, post paid, on receipt of price, by the publishers.

WEST VIRGINIA.—It will soon be a year since they have had a death in Morgantown. It is hard telling whether it is owing to the salubrity of the climate or the dising of the devil.

Whooping cough is prevalent in Morgantown, as yet without serious results.

The Charleston Telegram in a lengthy article, warmly advocates the election of Gen. T. M. Harris as United States Senator, to succeed Mr. Van Winkle.

MOSES B. HARTER, of Monongalia county, writes us that he shared his Vermont Buck purchased at the Carmichaels Fair last fall, and the three weighed twenty pounds heavy weight. This is about, by one half pound, of anything in this "big game."

Peter J. Weaver killed a rattlesnake, on Monday last, upon the farm of Mr. J. H. Hoffman, near Morgantown, that measured four and a half feet in length, and was supplied with seven rattles.

Governor Buchanan of West Virginia offers one hundred dollars reward for the arrest and delivery to the authorities of Taylor county, West Virginia, of Richard Chever, for the murder of Harmon Hesser, on the 25th day of May. Chever is about five feet eight inches high, sparsely built, long hair, brown hair, whiskers and mustache—thin on his face and lighter than hair—eyes blue and sunken, complexion fair. He is supposed to be somewhere in Pennsylvania, as he has friends and relatives in this State.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.—Hon. Geo. V. Lawrence has announced himself as a candidate for Congressional honors. The Reporter thinks "Mr. Lawrence will receive the hearty support of this county for the nomination." But that won't elect Mr. Lawrence in the District.

The Democracy have put the following ticket in the field: Congress, Cal. Wm. Hopkins; Assembly, R. M. Kinley, of West Brownsville; and Alfred Greig of Washington; District Attorney, Lathus James of Monongalia City; Commissioner, Bentley Kerr; of Carroll Auditor, A. E. Walker, Cross Creek; Director of the Poor, J. M. Day of Morris.

The editor of the Monongahela Republican Mr. Cull Hazard, recently expressed himself very much disgusted at the course of seven Senators on impeachment, alleging that they were outraged and betrayed by their action. For this he was removed from the position of Postmaster of Monongahela City, a place he has long and satisfactorily filled. Of course he is honored for scattering place for principle.

Copperheads are preparing to desecrate the memory of the coming anniversary of the Fourth by holding a picnic in a grove near Washington.

Plantation Bitters if timely used, are sure to rescue the young and lovely, the middle-aged, and the ailing, from confirmed sickness.

Almost all diseases have their beginning in some slight difficulty of the Stomach, which would eventually in Dyspepsia, Headache, Liver Complaints, Night Sweats, Consumption, Death. Plantation Bitters will prevent these premonitory symptoms, and keep the blood pure and the health good.

NEW YORK DRY GOODS MARKET. NEW YORK, June 23.—Trade more active and the market decidedly firmer for all fine brown and black shetings. Certain styles of heavy black shetings are also firm. A few, for instance, which sold as low as 18¢ by the package, are now firm at 16¢. These goods must advance. All light styles of prints are being closed out low, but dark colors are held firmly at 17¢.

WOOL. Holders of the finer clip Wools are ready to sell in anticipation of the early appearance of the new, and this feeling has made prices easy and led to some transactions, but the market for Fleeces, generally, is quiet. Some small lots of new clip have already come in, but it is alleged that the whole receipt will be later than usual, having been affected, like everything else, by a lingering winter.
